

DEATHS

MRS. ALICE EAGAN, of Sulphur Springs, Texas, a former resident of Marshall, died at her home Sunday night, Feb. 25th, of a complication of ailments, aged about 65 years.

Mrs. Eagan lived here most of her life and left about nine years ago for her new home in the hope of benefiting her health. She was an aunt of Mrs. Frank Lisator of Marshall.

Mrs. Eagan was still a member of the C. W. B. M. of the Marshall Christian church. While here she was a very active worker and had many close friends who regret the death of this excellent lady.

She was married twice and her first husband was Wm Johnston, who died many years ago and was laid to rest in Mt. Olive cemetery. Mrs. Eagan's remains were brought to Marshall Tuesday night and after a short service by Rev. B. T. Wharton at the undertaker's Wednesday at 10 a. m., were laid to rest in the grave bearing her husband and her name.

Miss Bessie Johnston, her grand daughter, and Wm Garnett and wife accompanied the remains from Sulphur Springs.

Jas. Collins, Mrs. Lisator's brother of Booneville, Mrs. Mollie Warren of Dexter, Kansas, sister of Mrs. Lisator; David Eagan and three sons of Dover, Mo., and others were here from a distance to attend the funeral.

JACOB MONTGOMERY KUYKENDALL was born Jan. 4, 1833 in Bourbon county, Ky., and came to Saline county, Mo., in 1861 and has since made this his home. He was married to Millissa Jane Williams April 16, 1875. To this union were born six children, four daughters and two sons; Mrs. Lawrence Shields, Mrs. Josie Shields, Mrs. Ethel Kroneke and Miss Viola who died Feb. 28, 1899, Milton C. Kuykendall and George M. Kuykendall all of Saline county except the latter, who are of Pettis.

He became a member of the Christian church at Christian Union Oct. 15, 1906.

Mr. Kuykendall was one of a large family, having five brothers and four sisters. He died on Feb. 20th, 1912 at his home near Cretcher at 4:50 o'clock a. m. — Sweet Springs Herald.

WILLIAM S. RUCKEL, 86 years old, died at his home in DeWitt Monday night. He was an ex-soldier and was prominent in local politics.

He is survived by two sons, E. S. Ruckel of Norborne and Henry Ruckel of Miami. His wife, Mrs. Sarah Ruckel, died April 7, 1911. A daughter, Mrs. Annie Gordon, died seven years ago.

After their marriage April 8, 1852, Mr. and Mrs. Ruckel lived in Baltimore, Md., five years. Then they emigrated to Missouri and settled near DeWitt.

Henry Ruckel went to DeWitt Tuesday to attend the funeral which was held Wednesday. The burial was in Evergreen cemetery at DeWitt.—Miami News.

MRS. AUGUSTA BABLER, wife of Mathias Babler, died of consumption at her home in Slater, Tuesday, February 20th, 1912, at the age of 61 years.

The funeral services will be held at the Presbyterian church this (Friday) afternoon at 2 o'clock and the remains will be buried at the city cemetery.

The deceased was a native of Germany, but came to this country many years ago, and was among the early residents of Slater.

She is survived by her husband, two sons and two daughters. The sons are Ernest, who lives in Kansas City, and Frits, of Slater; the daughters are Mrs. Julia, who lives in Kansas City, and Mrs. Stella Howford, of this place.

The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved family.—Slater Rustler.

AMELIA STOCKMANN died at the home of her son, Joseph Stockmann, five miles north of Glasgow, Feb. 18th, 1912. She was 85 years 7 months and 3 days old. She was born near Brussels, Belgium, and came to America at the age of 14 years. She was married to John Stockmann in St. Mary, Elk county, Pennsylvania, when she was 19 years old. In the year 1868 she came with her husband and children to Glasgow. Eleven children were born to them, nine sons and two daughters, of which six sons and one daughter are left to mourn her death. Her husband preceded her in death twelve years ago. She was a faithful wife, and a devoted true Christian mother. She was a devout member of the Catholic church.

Funeral services were held at St. Mary's church in Glasgow by Father Waelterman. Burial at Washington cemetery, Glasgow on February 17th.

MRS. BEN L. McROBERTS died in St. Anthony's hospital, St. Louis Wednesday at 11:45 a. m. as the result of an operation.

Mrs. McRoberts was taken to St. Louis by her husband and Dr. A. C. Putnam about three weeks ago to undergo a severe operation. It was found necessary to operate three times and the last time blood poisoning set in and caused her death.

Hattie Chaffee McRoberts was a daughter of M. C. Chaffee of this city. She was born in Marshall, Feb. 23, 1870, and was married to the surviving husband on March 30, 1895. She is survived also by two children and four brothers and one sister—Charles, Norman, Joe, and Scott Chaffee and Mrs. E. S. Meier of St. Louis at whose home she had just visited.

Her death is a very sad one as she was needed by her family and had many friends who are made sad by her sudden departure. The editor had a little talk with her on the train on her way to St. Louis and we found her very cheerful although she was to take the great risk. She was a most excellent lady in every way. She graduated from our high school and has many friends in Marshall who will join us in extending sympathy to the bereft family.

Funeral services will be held at noon today at the Methodist church in Malta Bend.

CORENE HARTMAN, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hartman died at their home near Elmwood Sunday night, Feb. 18. She was born Aug. 8, 1905 and was six years, six months and ten days old. She leaves a father, mother, two sisters and three brothers besides a host of friends to mourn her death. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Heira of Aulville at the Methodist church at Elmwood Tuesday morning at 10 a. m. and the remains laid to rest in Piegah cemetery. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved.

WINN—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Winn were grieved to learn of the death of their little son, William, which occurred Saturday evening at 4:30 after a few days' illness of stomach trouble, aged one and a half years.

The funeral occurred at the home of the parents on East Yerby at 10 a. m. Monday and was conducted by Rev. A. R. Faria, who gave the parents what comfort was possible. The remains were then laid to rest in Ridge Park cemetery. The pall bearers were F. W. Miles, Wm. Putsch, Calvin Balthis and V. V. Huff.

HAZEL IONE MANN, of Kansas City, a Colony inmate for seven years died Monday of acute nephritis, aged 15 years. Undertaker Walker has been holding the corpse till he can hear from the family.

WESLEY WARD, a highly respected and pioneer colored citizen of Saline county died at his farm about five miles north of Sweet Springs February 10, 1912. Mr. Ward was born a slave in Arapahoe county Virginia in the year 1814, and was 93 years old when he died. He came to Missouri in 1840 with his owners and during his bondage was married to Hannah Garden also a slave. To their union were born 9 children, three of which preceded him in death as did his wife. After the Civil war when he found himself a free man he came to Saline county and set about to prepare for the care of his family. Being an industrious man and a strict disciplinarian he soon learned and taught his family the important lesson of self-reliance.

He was a man possessed of great power of both body and mind—although he had no learning so far as books are concerned—and soon started out to buy land and to build a home; and the splendid farm of 139 acres, on which he died, valued from $10,000 to 12,000 was contracted for and paid for about 45 years ago. Later he purchased an additional 75 acres which he disposed of some time ago after his children were all grown and started in life each for himself.

COL. ROOSEVELT
WILL ACCEPTRejoicing Among Republicans
as a Result

Col. Theo. Roosevelt ended the long suspense of his friends as well as others, as to his accepting the presidential nomination, by writing the following letter to the eight governors who appealed to him to allow his name to be used.

"New York, Feb. 24, 1912.—Gentlemen: I deeply appreciate your letter and I realize to the full the heavy responsibility it puts upon me, expressing as it does the carefully considered convictions of the men elected by popular vote to stand as the heads of government in their several states.

"I absolutely agree with you that this matter is not one to be decided with any reference to the personal preferences or interests of any man, but purely from the standpoint of the interests of the people as a whole. I will accept the nomination for President if it is tendered to me and I will adhere to this decision until the convention has expressed its preference. One of the chief principles for which I have stood and for which I now stand and which I have always endeavored and always shall endeavor to reduce to action, is the genuine rule of the people; and therefore I hope that so far as possible the people may be given the chance, through direct primaries to express their preference as to who shall be the nominee of the Republican presidential convention.

"Very truly yours,
Theodore Roosevelt."

This letter clears up the matter as far as the public is concerned and they can now line up for their favorite. It will no doubt practically eliminate all the Republican candidates except Taft and Roosevelt.

The letter caused much satisfaction among local Republicans and one said, "Hurrah for Roosevelt; no use having an election now." Of course Mr. Roosevelt is a good way from the nomination yet and even then, there may be many new features before the election coming up having a bearing on the result.

But, generally speaking, Roosevelt's nomination means his election and will do much to eliminate the usual unsettled business conditions of campaign year.

His early contact with the business world soon caused him to realize the fact that if his children were to succeed in life that they should have at least the advantage of a common school education. And through his instrumentality at great financial sacrifices to himself secured the first school ever organized in his neighborhood for instructing the colored youth.

He was a member of the M. E. church for 40 years and lived a devout Christian life. He was an enterprising man and a hard worker and strove daily to teach his children by example that success will come only through the ceaseless efforts of a tireless worker.

His health began to fail about 10 years ago and he again showed his good sense and business sagacity to make his will and to name in it two of his sons as the administrators of his estate. Although he was 98 years old he had never had a doctor until a day or so before his death. He leaves to mourn his departure a widow, three sons, and three daughters and a step son. He also leaves to the common heritage of all a life well spent, rounded out with good deeds which should be an inspiration to all who ever knew him. I.T.A.

Church Notes

Rev. A. A. Wallace, of Mexico, preached at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening.

The bad weather Sunday evening caused the attendance at the various churches to be unusually small.

The First Presbyterian church will have a congregational meeting next Sunday at 11 a. m. in the nature of a conference. If thought advisable a pastor may be called.

Subject for next Sunday's sermons at the First Baptist church at 11 a. m., "Stephen, or Study in Martyrdom," at night, "The Coming Revival," by the pastor Rev. Clarence Hojge.

There will be an oyster supper at Steve Collins 21-2 miles south-east of Slater on March 5th, 1912 for the benefit of the church at Linn Grove. Everybody is invited to attend.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Ocell Ave. Presbyterian church held its annual praise meeting at the home of Mrs. G. H. Alt-house yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Geo. P. Baity of Kansas City made the annual address.

Frank H. Leonard, of the Christian Scientist Lectureship Board of Boston, gave a lecture on "Christian Science" at the M. E. Church Sunday afternoon. In spite of the bad weather there was a fair attendance, as the lecturers sent out by this board are among the most able and pleasing speakers of the day. Mr. Leonard was introduced by G. A. Radford and his talk was well received by all in attendance. The Christian Science congregation in Marshall is probably the smallest of any in point of numbers but when it comes to earnest, effective work they are an invincible organization.

Shocked to Death

Roy Morris, editor of the Houstonian, Monday wrote a poem entitled "Roosevelt's Dowry Song". In his preliminary he says: "we are not accustomed to courting the muse except upon impulse, but after chewing up two or three pencils, breaking out a window glass or two and kicking over the desk, we evolved the following, for which we kindly ask that no one will have us arrested: Then follows the poem.

Following this is an item telling of the sudden death of his faithful family mare and yet he seems unable to explain why she died so suddenly!
